The Whitlock Inn

The Whitlock Inn is a charming, century old Victorian mansion, located in the heart of historic Marietta. The Inn is cheerful and relaxing---just the place for a meeting away from the busy office.

There is a large, comfortable meeting room with tables and chairs provided. You may select breakfast before your meeting, all day coffee with freshly baked cookies, hot and cold box lunches or hot buffet-style lunches.

There are five guest rooms for your attendees.

"The Inn was so beautiful the day of our meetings. A couple of us took off our shoes and socks and walked in the grass. It might sound crazy, but I think doing that really got us thinking more creatively during our afternoon meetings." IBM

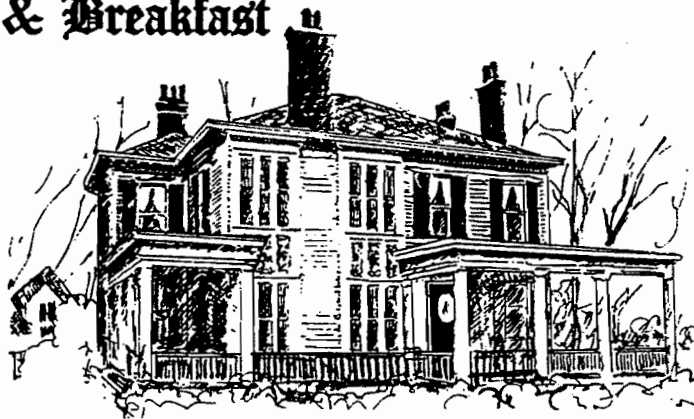

"This place is so beautiful and cheerful, it just makes me feel good about everything. If my patients came here I'd loose all my business." Marietta Psychologist
